MATERIAL

THE CANDLE POURERS FROM EAST JAVA, INDONESIA

The founders of the candle factory started their candle making factory for a specific reason: They want to give back to their community in East-Java, Indonesia. They turned their business into a candle factory and nowadays they produce candles non-stop in all sizes and shapes. Their starting point is more happy families by creating more job opportunities. Therefore, they pour the candles by hand. This is very important for rural communities where the unemployment and poverty rates are high.

The majority of the candle pourers are women which are empowered with special training programs. The women work in a safe environment, earn fair wages and receive free medical insurance for themselves and their families. On top of that, they gain more respect from their community which is very important in these kind of rural areas.

CANDLE MAKING

All candles in the originalhome collection are hand poured. When the wax is melted in big kettles, the craftswomen pour the liquid wax into a jar. The jar is used to pour the liquid wax into an iron mold that contains a cotton wick. Candle pouring is a very precise skill. The wax need to be poured into the mold in one go to make a consistent candle. It requires control and concentration. It is said that women are the best candle pourers!
