Made from waste

The majority of the originalhome collection is made from waste materials produced by the garment, cotton, wood, and tourism industry. Using waste as a raw material avoids the negative impact of producing new materials and avoids waste being burnt or ending up in the sea or in a landfill, causing huge damage to the environment and biodiversity. Turning this waste into useful home decoration gives it a second life. Waste is beautiful!

Our design philosophy

We design with respect to the planet and its people. We minimize our footprint, trade fair and give back.

Our planet has suffered enough from what we have taken. It is time to give back and do it right by putting planet & people before profit.

OUR ORIGINS

✓ Earth Friendly Materials

Nature is at the origin of our designs. We consistently use materials that have the smallest footprint on our planet. These are renewable plant fibres and waste materials.

✓ Environmental Friendly Production

To safeguard our planet even more, the production process of the originalhome collection is designed to minimize the negative impact on our planet.

✓ People Friendly Trade

How can we care for the planet if we do not care for people? We combine fair trade with creating job opportunities in rural areas of Indonesia, Bangladesh and Tanzania.
